SCAVENGER HUNTS MADE EASY.

Eventzee stems from Munzee, a geo-locational scavenger hunt game that uses QR codes around the world for players to find and scan for points. In three years Munzee has grown to more than 100 countries with nearly 200,000 players worldwide.

As our community grew a need arose for hosting private Munzee events in an easy, fun way. We then saw an opportunity to develop a new app that would make privatized scavenger hunts easier and more customizable for smartphones. What resulted was Eventzee, the easiest way to host private scavenger hunts for any event possible.

Whether you're planning a family reunion, organizing a trade show, or interested in alternative ways to develop corporate training, Eventzee can help you create an exciting and unique experience for everyone involved.

How It Works

START YOUR HUNT.

Whether it's 200 people or 2, our feature-filled and user-friendly admin tools will get your game going in no time. We've made it easy for you to create and control an engaging competition through our web and mobile app. Choose between a traditional photo-based scavenger hunt or a QR code-based hunt, where players use Eventzee to locate QR code stickers hidden in the wild. Customize your game in countless ways to make the most of your hunt. Custom artwork, unlimited player access and more options are available as well.

ROUND 'EM UP.

You've got your hunt planned, so now you need your hunters. Have everyone involved download the free Eventzee app to their Android or iOS device and RSVP to your event. Once players request to join you can approve them and start communication. Or if you choose a premium package, we will set up and run the event for you.

HUNTING TIME!

The hunters are ready for the hunt, now let the games begin! Watch the events unfold in real-time through the web based admin tools. As players hunt you can manage communication, approve photos and even use push notifications mid-hunt with hidden tasks for extra points. Now take a bow, because you've just hosted one of the most engaging social events your family/company/school has ever been a part of!
